I will live my life as a lobsterman's wife on an island in the blue bay. He will take care of me, he will smell like the sea, and close to my heart he'll always stay.

I will bear three girls all with strawberry curls, little Ella and Nelly and Faye.

While I'm combing their hair, I will catch his warm stare on our island in the blue bay.

Far away far away, I want to go far away, to a new life on a new shoreline. Where the water is blue and the people are new, to another island, in another life.

There's a boy next to me, and he never will be anything but a boy at the bar.
And I think he's the tops, he's where everything stops. How I love to love him from afar.

When he walks right past me then I finally see on this bar stool I can't stay.
So I'm taking my frown to a far distant town, on an island in the blue bay.
