

For Lovin' You

by Barry Dow (1992)

C C C C G G F F C C

That morning light comes into the window with a calling And last night's
Am Am F F G G
dream, it's up on the mountain fading fast. And so it
C C G G C C
seems, that I'm down in the kitchen making coffee,
F C G C C C C
thinking about the future, remembering the past.

I seldom find the words to tell you just how much I need you. But I don't
Am Am F F G G
see a future where you are not here with me. And there's a
C C G G C C
strength in knowing someone's standing there beside you;
F C G C C C7 C7
thinking about the way it was the way that it's going to be. And we follow our routine and sleepwalk through our days. And F F F G G

F F G C
often we forget the one we should appreciate. they F G C Am Am
say there's nothing new under the sun but that's not true.
F G C C C C G G F F C C
I get one more chance for lovin' you. You know my my dream the one I have left that's still unbroken. When I'm in doubt you are all the comfort that I need. There's a

strength in knowing someone's standing there beside you;
thinking about the way it was, the way that it's going to be

And we follow our routine and sleepwalk through our days. and often we forget the one we should appreciate. They
They say there's nothing new under the sun but that's not true.
F G G E Am Am F G G C intro
I get one more chance for lovin' you. I get one more chance for lovin' you.