

God May Forgive You But I Won't

by Harlan

Howard and Bobby Braddock (1987)

^G You say that you're born again, ^G cleansed of your former sins ^C

^G You want me to say I forgive and forget ^{D7}

^G But you've done too much to me; don't you be touching me ^C

^G Go back and touch all those women you've met ^{D7}

^C God may forgive you but I won't ^{D7} ^G

^C Yes Jesus loves you but I don't ^{D7} ^G

^C They don't have to live with you and neither do I ^C ^G

^C You say that you're born again well so am I ^C ^G

^C God may forgive you but I won't and I won't even try ^{D7} ^{D7} ^G ^G

^G The kids used to cry for you, I had to try to do ^G ^C ^C

^G Things that a dad should do since you've been gone ^{D7} ^{D7}

^G Well you really let us down; you may be heaven bound ^C ^C

^G But you've made one hell of a mess here at home ^{D7} ^G
