Life is too far to walk alone, You can't do it on your own. It's like bare hands digging through stone. And if G G Am Am
C C G G
things go down much steeper hills, even money won't pay these C C G G
bills and time will show you now

G G Am Am
The people gonna be ok, storms never come to stay, they just show us how bad we need each other, How bad we need each other. And the G G Am Am
C C G G
trials of today, they are signs along the way, to remind us of how C C G G Am Am C C G G bad we need each other; how bad we need each other

You know I can get so high, I get so high on myself sometimes I keep on drifting a million miles from this planet.
But what a shame it would be to look back on this life and realize that I've taken you, and you for granted

The people gonna be ok, storms never come to stay, they just show us how bad we need each other; how bad we need each other And whether we laugh, or whether we grieve, I know both sides are gonna make us see,
How bad we need each other, Don't you know how bad we need each other

Bb C G G
And I, I can't see what's a mile around the bend. I do not know where this world is headed or where it may end
Bb C G G

But you gave me this smile So I threw away my frown, and I Am Am D D
ain't gonna pick up what I just put down

The people gonna be ok, storms never come to stay, they just show us how
trials of today, they are signs along the way, to remind us of how

The people gonna be ok, storms never come to stay, they just show us how
We ought to take a little time to sit, because the wisest men forget.
How bad we need each other, don't you know how bad we need each other

And I need you more then I let it show, and you need me more then you know, We can't walk a single mile alone, yeah I need you, I need you so darn bad.
