Struck by the sounds before the sun I knew the night had gone The morning breeze like a bugle blew Against the drums of dawn

The ocean wild like an organ played The seaweed's wove its strands The crashin' waves like cymbals clashed Against the rocks and sands

I stood unwound beneath the skies And clouds unbound by laws The cryin' rain like a trumpet sang And asked for no applause

The last of leaves fell from the trees And clung to a new love's breast The branches bare like a banjo played To the winds that listened best

> I gazed down in the river's mirror And watched its winding strum The water smooth ran like a hymn And like a harp did hum

Lay down your weary tune, lay down Lay down the song you strum And rest yourself 'neath the strength of strings No voice can hope to hum
