Please Come Home for Christmas by Charles

Brown and Gene Redd (1960)

```
intro: [A E F# C#] (single notes)
```

```
Amai7
                                       A7 A7
Bells will be ringing the sad, sad, sad news, oh what a
                          D#dim7 D#dim7
D7
           D7
Christmas
              to have the blues.
                                      My baby's
      D
                  A_{(\frac{1}{2})}
                         A/G#_{(1/2)} F#m7
gone, I have no friends
                                       to wish me
B7
         B7
                   E7
                         E7aug+/D
Greetings once again.
                            Choirs will be Amaj7
Α
                A7
                         A7
singing
           "Silent Night".
                            Christmas
                   D#dim7 D#dim7
D7
Carols by candlelight.
                                  Please come home for
Α
           D
                                   A_{(\frac{1}{2})}
                                          A/G#_{(1/2)} F#m7
Christmas, please come home for Christmas, if not for E7
Christmas, by New Year's night Friends and D
               D Dm
                                   Dm
      relations send salutations
                  Eaug
                                    A7
                         Α
      Sure as the stars shine above
                                       For this is Dm
                                             Dm
      Christmas, yes, Christmas my dear, each time of the E+
      year to be with the one you love
                    Amai7
                                       A7
                                             A7
So won't you tell me you'll never more roam.
                                                 Christmas
                         D#dim7 D#dim7
D7
        D7
New Year will find you home.
                                     There'll be no more
                       F#m_{(1/2)} F#m/E_{(1/2)} D_{(1/2)} D#dim_{(1/2)}
            no grief and pain cause I'll be sorrow,
                B7_{(\frac{1}{2})} E7_{(\frac{1}{2})}
A_{(1/2)} F # m_{(1/2)}
happy
                happy once again
```