Show Me the Way to Go Home by Irving King (1925)

(pseudonym for James Campbell and Reginald Connelly)

A   A7   D(½)   Dm(½)   A
Show me the way to go home, I'm tired and I want to go to bed
A   A   B7   E7
I had a little drink about an hour ago and it went right to my head
        A   A7   D   C#
Where ever I may roam, on land or sea or foam
         A   A(½)   F#m(½) B7(½)   E7(½)   A
You will always hear me singing this song,   show me the way to go home

A(½)   A7(½) D(½)   Dm(½)
When I'm happy, when I'm happy
A(½)   B7(½) E7
Singing all the while
A(½)   A7(½)   D(½) Dm(½)
I don't need nobody then
     A(½)   E7(½)   A
To show me how to smile
      E(½)   B7(½)   E(½)
When I've been out on the spree
      E(½)   B7(½)   E
Toddling down the street
      E(½)   B7(½) E
With this little   melody
      A(½) B7(½) E(½)   E7(½)
Everyone I greet

Some folks say, eat more fruit, some say, eat more meat
Others say what's wrong with fish and how's your poor old feet?
I think it's a waste of time, you must with me agree
Everyone should sing more songs , so sing this one with me.
