

Teach Your Children

by Graham Nash (1970)

D D G G D D A A

D D G G D D A A
You who are on the road must have a code that you can live by

D D G G D D A A
And so become yourself because the past is just a goodbye

D D G G D D A A
Teach your children well, Their father's hell did slowly go by.

D D G G D D A A
And feed them on your dreams, the one they picked, the one you'll know by.

D D G G D D
Don't you ever ask them why, if they told you, you would cry, so just look at them and
Bm Bm G A D D G G D D A A
sigh and know they love you

D D G G D D A A
And you, of tender years, Can't know the fears that your elders grew by

D D G G D D A A
And so please help them with your youth, they seek the truth, before they can die

D D G G D D A A
Teach your parents well, Their children's hell will slowly go by

D D G G D D A A
And feed them on your dreams, the one they picked, the one you'll know by.

D D G G D D
Don't you ever ask them why, if they told you, you would cry, so just look at them and
Bm Bm G A D D G G D D A A
sigh and know they love you

Duet lyrics for "And you, of tender years..."

(Can you hear and do you care
And can't you see we must be free
To teach our children what you believe in Make a world that we can believe in.)
