Ε Α Α Ε you'd better throw them away These things you keep Ε Α Е You wanna turn your back on your soulless days Α E Ε Α Once you were tethered and now you are free E Ε Α Α Once you were tethered well now you are free F E Α Α That was the river this is the sea!

Now if you're feelin' weary, if you've been alone too long Maybe you've been suffering from a few too many plans that have gone wrong And you're trying to remember how fine your life used to be Running around banging your drum like it's 1973 Well that was the river, this is the sea! Wooo!

Now you say you've got trouble you say you've got pain You say've got nothing left to believe in Nothing to hold on to; nothing to trust; nothing but chains You've been scouring your conscience, raking through your memories Scouring your conscience, raking through your memories But that was the river, this is the sea yeah!

Now I can see you wavering aAs you try to decide You've got a war in your head and it's tearing you up inside You're trying to make sense of something that you just don't see Trying to make sense now and you know you once held the key But that was the river and this is the sea! Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah!

Now I hear there's a train; it's coming on down the line It's yours if you hurry you've got still enough time And you don't need no ticket and you don't pay no fee No you don't need no ticket; you don't pay no fee Because that was the river and this is the sea! Behold the sea!
