You Needed Me by Randy Goodrum (1975)

I cried the tear, you wiped it dry. I was confused, you cleared my mind. I sold my E7
soul, you bought it back for me and held me up and gave me dignity; somehow you
A7
needed me. You gave me
                                            A7
                   G
strength to stand alone again, to face the world out on my own again. You put me
D_{(\frac{1}{2})} D7_{(\frac{1}{2})} G_{(\frac{1}{2})} Gdim_{(\frac{1}{2})} D_{(\frac{1}{2})} F#7_{(\frac{1}{2})} Bm_{(\frac{1}{2})} E7 so high that I could almost see e ternity. You upon a pedestal,
A7
                  D_{(1/2)}
needed me, you needed me. And I D_{(1/2)}
                                            G_{(1/2)}
       And I can't believe it's you, I can't believe it's true
                 A7_{(1/2)}
                                     D_{(\frac{1}{2})} F#7_{(\frac{1}{2})}
       needed you and you were there.
                                                 And I'll
               D_{(\frac{1}{2})}
                                                  G_{(\frac{1}{2})}

       never leave, why should I leave? I'd be a fool. 'cause I've

                                                   A7
       finally found someone who really cares. You held my hand when it was cold. When I was lost you took me home. You gave me
                                      A7

                                                 E7
hope when I was at the end and turned my lies back into truth again, you even A7
called me friend. You gave me
                                           A7
strength to stand alone again, to face the world out on my own again. You put me needed me, you needed me. You needed me, you needed me.
